11 Support for Learning

The Law pathway adopts in full the policy and forms of student support and guidance detailed in the Scheme document.

Support available to students will include that provided by the central services of the College, the Route, the Pathway and their Award. Specific support available to students on this Pathway will include academic and professional guidance via tutorial support, Support for placements, pastoral and welfare support, careers information and guidance, module and student handbooks. All students within the pathway will be allocated a personal tutor and, in addition, other staff may be directed to support the learning of students through, for example, the provision of study skills guidance, study facilitation or mentoring.

12 Criteria for admission

This award subscribes to the admissions criteria and processes specified within the Law Pathway documentation. Successful candidates are usually expected to possess 2xA levels amounting to 160 points or an equivalent qualification. Formal academic qualifications may be dispensed with in the context of mature students, whose admission may be based upon a formal interview in which admissions tutors will assess if the student exhibits a capability to complete and benefit from the course.

13 Evaluation and improvement of quality and standards

The Scheme and its constituent routes and awards are managed and operated in accordance with College and University regulations and procedures. Annual Reviews will include representations and inputs from employers, professional bodies, students, external examiners and members of the teaching staff which will contribute to curriculum development and improved course organisation. Reports on actions planned to improve quality and standards will be made to the College and the University.

14 Regulations of assessment

The Scheme adopts in full the University Academic Principles and Regulations. Students will be provided with a copy of the University Student Assessment Regulations (a sub-set of the University Academic Regulations) at the point of registration for their award.

15 Indicators of programme quality

Annual review and monitoring will be conducted in line with University regulations using the College processes. The full cycle of review will take place and is identified in the Scheme Calendar. The cycle of review includes module evaluation by students and staff, annual student perception of courses surveys, Employer Surveys, actions recommended by external examiners, Route/Pathway committees, route review and Scheme review, to include critical review of retention, achievement and success rates.
